

Midsummer Night's Dream

By men who wouldn't know prose from verse!
 What a time for our Fairy Queen
 To show with her retinue and make a scene
 For the Fairy King keeps his revels here
 And a fairy just told me Queen Titania's near
 Time to show myself here in the Marsh
 For Fairy King Oberon's temper is harsh
 Your true path you cannot select
 So your route is indirect
 South from this school all will behold
 My mortal form gleams like gold

4. To torment his wife, the Fairy Queen,
 Oberon has hatched a little scheme
 "Fetch me that flower, the herb I showed thee once
 The maidens call it love-in-idleness
 Marked I where the bolt of Cupid fell
 When aiming at a mermaid he loved well
 It missed and fell upon a little western flower
 Before milk-white, now purple with love's shower
 The juice of it on sleeping eyelids laid
 Will make man or woman madly crave
 The next live creature that it sees
 I must have that flower to bring her to my knees"
 To find one flower, you'll need another
 To follow north, to the mermaid's cover
 A special garden by the bay
 Will send you quickly on your way
 Guarded by the true innocence of love
 Where a small girl holds two turtle doves

Midsummer Night's Dream

3. at Cal Poly; leads to Puck statue

Helena thought she could win her man
 By spilling the news of her best friends' plan
 So all four are in my forest glen
 Along with a crew of hard-handed men
 Common laborers, who for their king
 Have decided in honor that the play's the thing
 But now it's time for this mischievous elf
 To meet my master and show myself
 So listen to me and my big mouth
 In strange California, you'll head south
 A Senor Figuera guides you into town
 A left tomorrow will save a frown
 Then when you spy a theater you'll be Right within walking distance of me!
 I could be 8 or 800, but a fresh choice you've made
 When you decipher the message I've laid
 (All you'll find for your next clue is an inscription
 Which will fit in this depiction!)
