

I am the ghost of Claude Monet

I have come to take you on a journey through one of my favorite places today

The South of France

My painting has been considered the beginning of the age of Impression

From here in Nice you will revel in a race to seek your final destination

Your task will be to discover this canvas but also enjoy the quest

To find that which you surely will be put to the test

Through it all there shall be a magical trek of challenge and beauty

In country to see the glow of the sun, the shimmer of the sea

The majesty of the mountains and the glory of the plains

From mankind's edifices to the animal's remains

It will be upon you to strive along a road both arduous and long

Your mind's eye will guide you but your heart's spirit is strong

Trust me as your guide and mentor and you will be rewarded

To a place that finally you will be awarded
