

Snake 1

Left at the Light, see
You drive a short distance
Then very soon right onto Kinney
A Cinnamon Path left, for instance
Will take you right onto Waterloo Trail
From there a left at Thornton you go
Half a mile to a dead end you sail
Easterly bound, drive 1.1 mo'
A Congressional right then .3 miles more
You stop to get out in the fresh air
For snakes love to slither in the Great Outdoors
And the water falls down to your lair
A southern wooden shack for shade
Beneath it's roof you've got it made

Snake clue 1

(on cassette)

Snake, now slither down to round endangered
Chainlink gate is entry defended
The lizard eyes it level facing
You must surmise it's gazing
Up from the gate on belly step
Act as you do, maintain your rep'

Snake 2

Back onto Congress is the way to wend
Left at the light it's familiar you see
Drive all the way to another dead end
Go south now to a wildflower right you'll be Stop at the light if you must resort
Through it veer the right
On the Blue you disport
And wind the road in sight
It will become the Civil Leader
And see ahead a ballpark
Into it the vehicular feeder
Near the concrete cold and stark
This gutter is near an entry down
Where the center is protected
In a room four is found

Here it curves neglected

Snake clue 2

Snake, I send you where the humans sleep
Their dreams are fitful, their fears are deep
If you disturb them they will awaken
And off to jail you will be taken
So act as cool as your brethren

Snake 3

Back to the Lee and Northern
Right to find the Barton S
A sort of drive and sojourn
That calls itself a river is
A right ...And shortly driven
You find the avenue of the senate
This southern turn is given
To overnight the hamlet
Into the place Saint Joe
Is where you must go

Snake clue 3

Snake, you rescued your brethren from the abyss
The next place you go the index don't miss
Snakebite/ or /Trouble
Let your search redouble
Come and Get It / Lovehunter/
A Slip of the Tongue/ makes you wonder a /Restless Heart/ is /Ready and Willing/don't bend over or they'll /Slide It In

Snake 4

Now reverse the race
Past the river over
To the 6 you trace
To the west stay sober
Until the Loo it calls
Into the music stalls

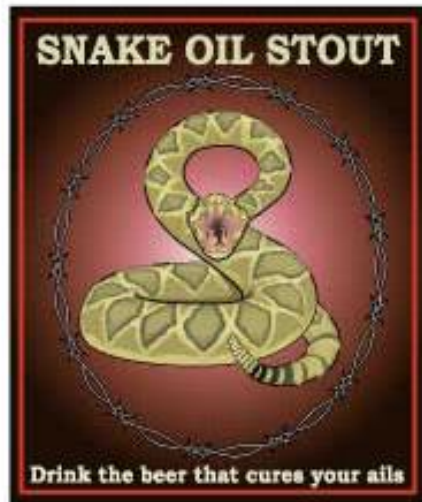

Snake clue 4

Snake 5

The deed is done, your trek continues
If you find the right way, 5th street does beckon
You go past Lamar, it has lots of venues
East to the Lupe and right, I reckon
It's only one block to turn left at the 4
Soon in the middle a man of flour
Wants you to come up to his door
Enter in, 'tis your finest hour
You're hot and thirsty, a beer would be great
But first you must sing to Hilary a song that you hate

Snake clue 5

Snake, your rescue of your fellow reptile
Proves your worth with your own guile
Now the place that calls you round
Is cradled 'neath a rustling sound
Behind the place that stores the treats
That humans love so much to eat
But behind it now they built a pond
Around it also is a lawn
Your brethren waits where limbs hit earth
In the shade you prove your worth

Snake 6

Leave the dirty and the low
Now the east will rock ya
Towards the east past 'Lupe' go
North rhymes with La Caca
Then up and away and straight
Nineteen twice for goodness sake
Is left there now your fate
Right not far on the Mar
Enter towards the Health and Food
A central place is the star
And for a walk you're in the mood
Make your way towards the back

Around the water is a track

Snake clue 6

In this place of the dead, the search is daunting
Wandering through, the spirits are haunting
But leave them alone, it's hallowed ground
There are some numbers to be found
The caretakers have developed a system
Where plots are located and easily list'em
Though the grounds and numbers to you are for eign

Snake 7

Southeast on 40 the 'Mar' you make
There the right you will sail
Nothing left but the 38
South on the 'lupe' you can't fail
Now it's time to go back into the heat
Drive south for a while and soon you'll see
It's Dean Keeton now, was 26th Street
Take the left, as it's all you can be
To the big highway you travel
Merge into traffic, it's hard I know
Take the 8th St. exit before you unravel
Left at 7th, to Navasota you go
Navasota north see the right flow
Into the garden row by row

Snake Clue 7

Snake 8

Now to the seven again you hasten
Up through the east to the One Eight and Three is fashionable
Confederate direction merge you'll be facin'
Seven and One towards rhymes with irrational
A terminal sight you pass by 21 miles more from this marker
Away down the highway you fly
Don't give up hope, unless it gets darker
Over a creek and past the 20
If your looking for nothing on this road there's a lot
There for a time the driving is plenty
To the town that sounds like 'cash crop'
After the 'Limit' a left at the Shell
Loop one and fifty eastern you thrive
Over a bridge and there's more to tell
A left on the main and spring right you drive
One half block is not much
To find the dragon's touch

Snake Clue 8

(On Cassette) with the ZZ Top song

Snake 9

The seven and one is calling your name
In the direction that is where you did travel
The distance is longer but keep your eyes trained
Stay on the road keep off of the gravel
Pecans, pecans, pecans, oh my
The humans around here are nutty
Soon some smiling water in the sky
Looks down like some giant buddy
Close to the city the exits will come
Stay away from the road to the business
It's the Seven and Seven that'll make your heart run
Exit right, stop, then right, don't be restless
Down the hill, then cross the rail
"Be correct" at the Colorado
Find the Cozy, you cannot fail
You're near the end of this day's bravado
Left on the Main past the light
The end is within sight
