

SECONDARY COLORS

God, what an exciting feeling! After years in the GOP trenches, planning fund raising dinners for your state representative, eating cold fried chicken behind the curtain, scheduling media events for the lieutenant governor, you've finally hit the big time - you're on the DOLE campaign team! And if Bob Dole wants to be president, then Bob Dole is going to be president! No Nazi-loving nut case like Pat LooseCannon could keep him from the party's nomination, and no marijuana-smoking, draft-dodging, gay-loving liberal is going to keep Bob Dole from the White House!

Unfortunately, your boss trails in the polls. If it isn't D'Amato suddenly sounding like Ted Kennedy, it's Newt "The Grinch" Gingrich trying to steal candy from babies. The party is self-destructing, and they're looking to Bob Dole for vision, for direction... and to your campaign team for answers! You're a patriotic American - you want to see this straight talkin' war hero leading our country the next four years! You want to know our country is on the right fiscal and moral path! So what if our Family Values Man is on his second wife? So what if he's as old as Reagan in his second term - at least we've got Reagan's barber to dye his hair! And your selection of Jack Kemp as VP was a real coup. Of course, you've already taken the big step of having the Big Guy step down from his post as Senate Majority Leader, so your butt is on the line. Naturally, if Dole wins, you'll have a cushy job in the White House for the next four years, and babes galore! Bob Dole must win - at any cost! You'll do whatever it takes, even if it means smearing his opponent {or his wife} in the White House and his enemies on the Hill. If only you could learn more about Clinton, something nobody else knows....Whitewater's already been milked dry... Wait! Didn't you once read that Bill Clinton had an illegitimate half-brother out here in California? Maybe he has dirt no one else has ever seen. Then again, maybe you need to keep the dirt from hitting your boy first. After all, your boss would lose if the election were held today. And despite the proliferation of Clinton scandals, Dole retains that pesky hoof-in-dentures disease. Who can forget his admission that he'd rather speak to people he can relate to, instead of the NAACP? You need to make sure you preempt any ill wind that could blow Dole's way. A spy from the Clinton campaign has just brought a secret tape to you....

1. Can you believe what you just heard?
Clinton's campaign team is quite absurd!
They seemed so smug as they sat there gloating
But Americans haven't even started voting!
Dole simply isn't that far behind
Nobody can predict the voter's mind
But it's true sometimes he can seem out of touch
And he hasn't been in a grocery store much
And yes, sometimes he's a little stiff
What if the press then gets a whiff?
The Pretty View will show you the way
Left at the "T" to join the fray
If he looks bad, it's your can

Onward now to save your man!

2. No press faux pas! You saved the show!
You're the campaign team hero!
Now you must keep Dole out of reach
While he prepares his next stirring speech
Lower taxes?? No, won't work
If the promise is broken, he'll look like a jerk
Fight the Commies? Now there's a plan!
But there's none left in Uzbekistan
Cuba's still red, and in our backyard
Maintain the boycott - that's not hard
But actual fighting could start real trouble
And burst the proverbial ratings bubble
Best to let sleeping dogs lie
Go ahead and pass Castro by
To the Northeast your destiny lies
Dole's stature you cannot jeopardize
Down Portola, twisting and turning
You're in the Market for some heavy learning
It's time to use official apparatus
To preserve Dole's leadership status
At least he's not like randy politicians
Who must fend off paternity petitions
At a park he'll stop to rest
To meet the House leadership test
You must pay homage to the leader
After all, he was a convention speaker
But don't photograph the two together
After all, Dole is much older
And if his ratings you want to increase
He can't look like a MUSEUM piece!

3. No bloopers yet, but that's not enough
Dole needs to really strut his stuff
He needs to flash his vision and might
You need to create the perfect sound bite
Something that shows he's tough on crime
But won't eat up an hour of time
A shot that proves he's the man to choose
In time to make the evening news
But he also needs to reveal his softer side

In a manner which is still dignified
Show him with kids! That's a great plan!
"Protector of children! Dole's our man!"
The scenic seagull guides your team
As FDR helps you scheme
Then a saintly lady makes a bow
Follow her; Don't make a row
Add a local politician, and you're set
(Though the neighborhood might make Dole sweat)
This op is good; don't let Dole fear
South and east, your Mission's near
As Valiently your goal you pursue
Don't let Nessie make a fool of you

4. Your man needs a splashy public appearance
To prove his smarts and perseverance
Maybe support for our US troops
To provide the media with scoops?
Maybe a tête-à-tête international,
To prove as a leader he is rational?
He'll need to play a Jeckyl and Hyde:
Soft on business, but tough worldwide
For Kuwait and Bosnia, he'll play the hawk
And keep an eye on the Eastern bloc
Use the Van now; you'll need the room
As your work you do resume
The great seal of California is an impressive sight
A sure sign that it's time to turn right

5. Yes, that was the place to make a show
But apparently the time was a no-no
Still, the publicity wasn't bad
For a man older than your grand-dad
He stated his position with composure
Now he needs votes in addition to exposure
He could address a special interest group
And figure his losses to recoup
The NRA? Been there, done that Tobacco industry? Really old hat!
NAACP? He just can't relate
He needs a crowd that's appropriate
To the right convention he can orate
And his vision enunciate

A former mayor might help you find
 A group in town of this kind
 South of Market you should head
 So your man is not misled
 For Johnny Cash, you'll turn left
 And drive till 4:00 if you're deft
 For middle America, you'll stand in the street
 Right in the center you'll plant your feet
 As Howard Baker was a moderate
 So can Dole appease his electorate

6. Was Dole great? Was he the best?
 With Kemp beside him at your behest?
 How many new votes is anybody's guess
 The press is not calling this a success
 But you have matters far more pressing
 For with Yeltsin's health your are obsessing
 Yes, Clinton backed him, but so did Dole
 And years of vodka are taking their toll
 Dole needs to visit the head of state
 And meet with Russia's right-wing slate
 You'll want to push a free Market agenda
 Till Kearny hits the discoverer of America

~~...any no don't throw in the towel~~
To Russia you'll travel to carefully plan
And do the advance work for your man
He needs to get Lebed's ear
For no other Russian is his pier

7. Egads! Yeltsin looked even older than Dole!
But you couldn't meet with Lebed to save your soul
And the trip to Russia took time away
From bashing Clinton in the U.S.A.
What the hell?? Now Perot's in it too?
As if you didn't have enough to do
Now you'll have to woo the Texas vote
(You let a New Yorker give the keynote!)
Phil Gramm dropped out, but he's big in Texas
And George W. Bush has survived all hexes
Obviously Southwest you must go
To see what favors you must bestow
For Texans have always been sensitive
To what you carpet baggers try to give
In fact, they fought till the last one died
So take their independent streak in stride

8. You acquired the support Dole desperately wanted
Now you need a photo opportunity to vaunt it
To boast of Dole's bravery in wars past
And show that Clinton is gravely miscast
A nation Divided will not stand
But it can help elect your man!
Time to move north, and take no prisoners
You already have the support of governors!
A memorial to our guardians of liberty
And the press will focus less on poverty
Soon the water is within sight
Making you feel your choice is right

9. Wow! What a shot! It sure illustrated

As Commander-in-Chief, Clinton's overrated
Of course, Libby also lacks military service
I guess she's not fit for public service
But the news from the valley isn't good
You're losing the rich boys in the business 'hood
Time to try a different county
One with Republican checkbook bounty
You need to stage a well crafted rally
One that highlights God and family
A Republican President leads you north
Feeling golden, you sally forth
Don't hit the sauce; don't mill around
You've got to turn this campaign around!
The prison is for Clinton's friends
You're looking for much loftier ends
If you can film Dole in front of a church
You'll leave Clinton in the lurch

10. Heavens above! What a place!
Religion with a liberal face!
This was not full of Christian cheer
It looks like Amnesty International was here!
Certainly doesn't make Dole look bitchin'
On his affirmative action position
You want this dirt to be on Clinton
So his misdeeds he'll be admittin'
You hate that man who plays the sax
North you'll drive for an evil fax
Pass Novato and the wine country
You have no time for Chablis
Among flower petals, there's also dirt
Use it so Clinton can be hurt
Maybe his kinky past will haunt him
With the evidence you can taunt him

11. The conventions gave each man a boost
But the difference was not reduced
This dirt is exactly what you need
To bring Dole/Kemp up to speed
What a way for you to distract
To catch Slick Willie in the act
You know you're driving many a mile

But a photo-op like this makes it worthwhile
West you continue, towards a Bay
Soon the Coast will hold sway
In town a left at the general store
Puts you on course to even the score
424 is the answer to your dreams
Of campaign manager plots & schemes
