

PRESENTING . . .

the one and only . .

S ensational
A dventurous
N otorious
D astardly
I conoclastic
E soteric
G randiose and
O utrageous

1992 ROAD RALLY ! ! !

brought to you by

Marc Chomel * * * Elizabeth Sanchez
Maureen O'Brien * * * Mike Bogert

the Makers of Fine Entertainment

And now a word from our sponsors . . .

Twas the Friday 'fore Labor Day,
And all through the night,
Rally planners drove from cluesite to cluesite,
They planted their cryptic messages with mischievous glee,
And buried lost treasures for you to free,
Guarded by party animals that await,
Seven teams' departure from the starting gate.

They'll all be retrieved by various teams,
Each on a mission of eclectic themes,
The all-day contest has an objective,
If not just to place your life in perspective,
The point of the race is to find the location,
Of an undisclosed weekend destination,
Where you can beach and party 'til Monday night,
And sing and dance under the moonlight,
Or play volleyball, charades and Twister, too,
All while drinking your favorite brew,
And for those less wild and more sedate,
There's plenty of nature and culture
                  to contemplate.

To defray the expense of food, spirits and
                  accommodation,
We're obliged to ask for a $40.00 donation,
Which covers the basics and a Friday night
                  stay,
At a San Diego Inn where you'll sleep 'fore you play.
Exotic lodging and some meals are supplied,
And towering trophies to be exhibited with pride.
You'd probably spend more on a Friday night,
With a movie date and a six of Coors lite.

This race is not for the meek and faint-hearted,
An early weekend retreat should not be charted,
A thermos of coffee should be in your stash,
Along with a sense of humor and some petty cash,
The first Houston rally was Galveston bound,
A sure test for any rabid bloodhound,
It's now grown in its challenges and devious
tricks,

Only with Olympic endurance can you get in your licks,

And a measure of smarts and ability,

And driving skill of some degree.

If you don't like games and competition,

Then sit home and read, or watch television,

But if you're ready to party and do something new,

Join in the race, and make friends with our crew!

If your mood and spirit are up to task,

Then an R.S.V.P. is all we ask,

By August 15th, to reserve your spot,

On an Encinitas parking lot.

And on September fourth plan to rendezvous,

In a Northern San Diego venue,

In Encinitas, at 960 First Street,

'Tis at Motel Villa Mar where ralliers will meet.

Book your flights and plans in advance,

Lest you miss this sporting chance!

From tarpit to fountain, from adult book store
to bluff,

Five years of ralliers has been somewhat rough.

If you've never experienced the treks of years
past,

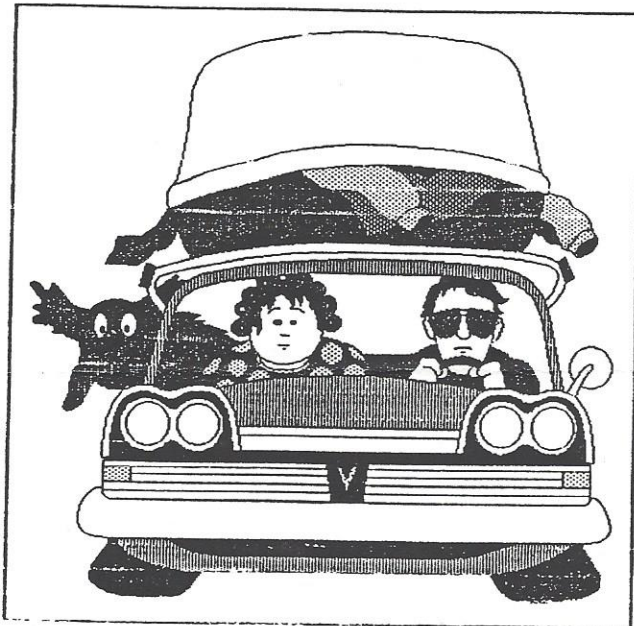

Jump on the bandwagon, it may be the last!

The rally will begin at 9:00 a.m. sharp on the morning of Saturday, Sept. 5, 1992. You should plan to stay in San Diego the night before at the Motel Villa Mar in Encinitas.

Things you will need:

- 1) A change of casual summer clothes for 4 days.
- 2) A bathing suit, beach towel and other beach accessories.
- 3) A camera***
- 4) A passport, if you have one.
- 5) If possible, a sleeping bag and pillow.
- 6) If possible, a small portable ice chest and thermos.
- 7) An alert mind, a sense of adventure and the courage to go where no man has gone before.

---

Check one, and send response to Marc Chomel Enterprises
1310 S. Catalina #306
Redondo Beach, Ca. 90277

If you have any questions, call Marc at (310) 540-6019
Elizabeth at (310) 318-8519
Mike at (213) 463-8137

_____ Yes, I would love to participate in this wild, weekend extravaganza. I have the necessary personality, stamina, sense of humor, courage and competitive streak to be a contender. Enclosed is my $40.00 check (per person) payable to Marc Chomel Enterprises to help defray expenses.

_____ I plan to drive my own car. (or one I've recently stolen). It can drive long distances without exploding spontaneously and it has a spare.

_____ My car's a junkheap, my license was suspended for DUI, I'll be flying in or I have no desire to subject my new Ferrari to this kind of abuse. Someone else on my team will have to drive.

_____ To take advantage of cheap air fare, I have just booked my flight and will be arriving at _____ LAX airport on Thursday, Sept. 3 at _____ on _____ flight no. _____.

_____ San Diego Airport (Lindbergh Field) on Friday, Sept. 4 at _____ on _____ flight no. _____.

Please pick me up!.

____ No, and for the last time, no! I can't come because

- ____ I absolutely despise games, and I hate your silly little rallies, and I hate San Diego and I would rather stick needles in my eyes than frequent the likes of you and your strange, perverted friends.
- ____ Some friend of mine had the unmitigated gall to get married, give birth, have sex or graduate from college that weekend and I have to be there.
- ____ I'm too broke to have fun. I couldn't even afford the postage for this RSVP. Besides, I may be flying to the Caymans that weekend.
- ____ With it being the Labor Day weekend and all, I think I'll have to work.