Oh barman I need a drink to ease my brain,
Of another romance that will soon wane,
I'll need my usual to drown my hurt,
And nevermore shall I ever flirt,
With ladies beautiful or plain,
Why be betrayed and feel this pain?
I'll soon become with all this sorrow,
A celibate monk tomorrow,
For who would want a man like me,
Poor and bald and pushing forty,
Love has jaded me beyond belief,
I feel nothing but this grief.

ROAD RALLY TAKES L.A. BY STORM!

LOS ANGELES- The 1991 Labor Day Road Rally has been scheduled to start from Los Angeles for the second consecutive year. The Rally, now in its seventh incarnation, will be hosted this year by Marc Chomel and Laura Ewing-Moore. "I believe this year's rally will be the best one yet," proclaimed Chomel, adding that his partner expansion was the key element to success. The Rally involves travelling great distances, unraveling the mysteries of the clues in order to determine the final "party" destination. "I still believe the Rally is 90% mental and only 10% speed," opined Ewing-Moore, Chomel's new partner. Chomel agreed: "The challenge is to interpret the clues correctly, with a minimum of help, and to pick up the party animals," adding "we would never encourage anyone to break the law." Reservations are now being accepted for this year's festivities. The $30.00 registration fee covers the cost of weekend lodging, meals, and of course, the trophies. Chomel does insist on adherence to the following rules: Bring driver's license, 8 dollar bills, 11 quarters, a camera with film, swimsuit, towel and a pillow. As always, entries are open to novices and experienced players alike. "We try to balance all teams to equalize the chances of winning and maximize fun," explained Ewing-Moore; "we would never want anyone to feel intimidated by our Rally". Commenting further, Chomel related how past beginners had scooped experienced teams to bag first prize. "We encourage everyone interested to complete the entry form and return to us by August 15th!" (Entry details on page A-2)

Local DA Sues for Libel After Arrested in Sex Scandal

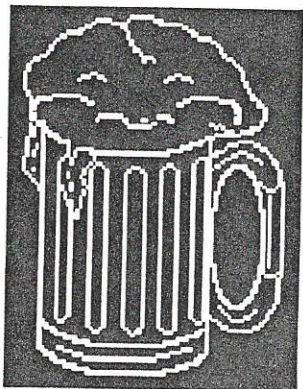

TORRANCE - Deputy D.A. Mucus Stomper is suing the Lost Angels Express over the following story run last week: . . . claims aliens forcibly removed him from his Redondo Beach home, fed him highly toxic inter-galactic drugs, then dropped him into a Hollywood brothel, according to defense attorneys Crawshaw and Goldsmith. "We have known our client personally for over three years, and sexual promiscuity is totally out of character [for defendant], who endures as a model of moral abstinence in this community, maintained Crawshaw, senior partner of the firm. "Our client's claim of kidnapping by horny aliens (continued on pg. A-3)

JUNK MAIL QUEEN DENIES CHARGES OF FRAUD

MARINA DEL REY- Direct marketing marvel Lora U.N. More recently denied charges of defrauding customers through her 900# telephone service, and has filed a countersuit of harassment versus the US Posthaul Service, according to courtroom sources. "All my friends in architecture assured me you could build a complete house over the phone," asserted More, adding "at only $19.98 a minute, that's a damn cheap house!" (cont. pg A5)
