

WELCOME to the 2021 ROAD RALLY from HELL!

(or the rally that almost didn't happen)

Or a contest of POLITICAL CORRECTNESS which will have you beaming with shame. Yes, there will be singing and dancing in ridiculous outfits that may find you embarrassed for not following the political norm.

So be it!

The destination is Austin, Texas, and the starting point will be my house at 1311 Bonham Terrace in Austin, at 9:00 a.m. Saturday morning, the 4th of September.

Your payment of $730.00 will guarantee you wonderful accommodations for two nights, Saturday and Sunday night, until noon on Monday, the 6th, and the traditional group event on Sunday night, September 5th. Appetizers and drinks on Saturday night are included as well (but you are on your own for the rest).

Payment can be made to my Venmo account @Marc-Chomel or my Pay Pal account – rally4marc@verizon.net.

I am currently searching for Friday night accommodations for folks that are coming from out of town. Locals... if you have space for one or two people let me know.

So far, we are at about 22 participants. Some will of course be drivers – one for each of six to seven teams. The cost of car rental should be distributed equally among the participants, at least for Rally Day.

Masking may be required in vehicles – that is the team's discretion. It will not be required at the party, other than at group events where mandated by the accommodation. All participants should be comfortable entering any space with a mask. However, as explained previously, everyone has to be fully vaccinated.

This is not fake news! It's true because we read it in the New York Times!

Come with an open mind and keep your bias in check.

Can't wait to see all of you!

RALLY HO! *Or is that just street talk?
