

Ak'bol

CLARITY OF PERSPECTIVE

Ak'bol, is the daysign of Vision. It is the nawal of clarity or light, and symbolizes both dawn and daylight. This is a day particularly propitious for love and marriage, and for the ability to think and act with perfect clarity. The animal totems of Ak'b'al are the fawn and the macaw.

At the crossroads where one way leads to face the storm, choose the diametric trail and divine all signs that guide you to Ak'bol. Once there, be mindful not to disturb any of the spirits in the cabanas or barracks. Instead, seek shade forthwith.

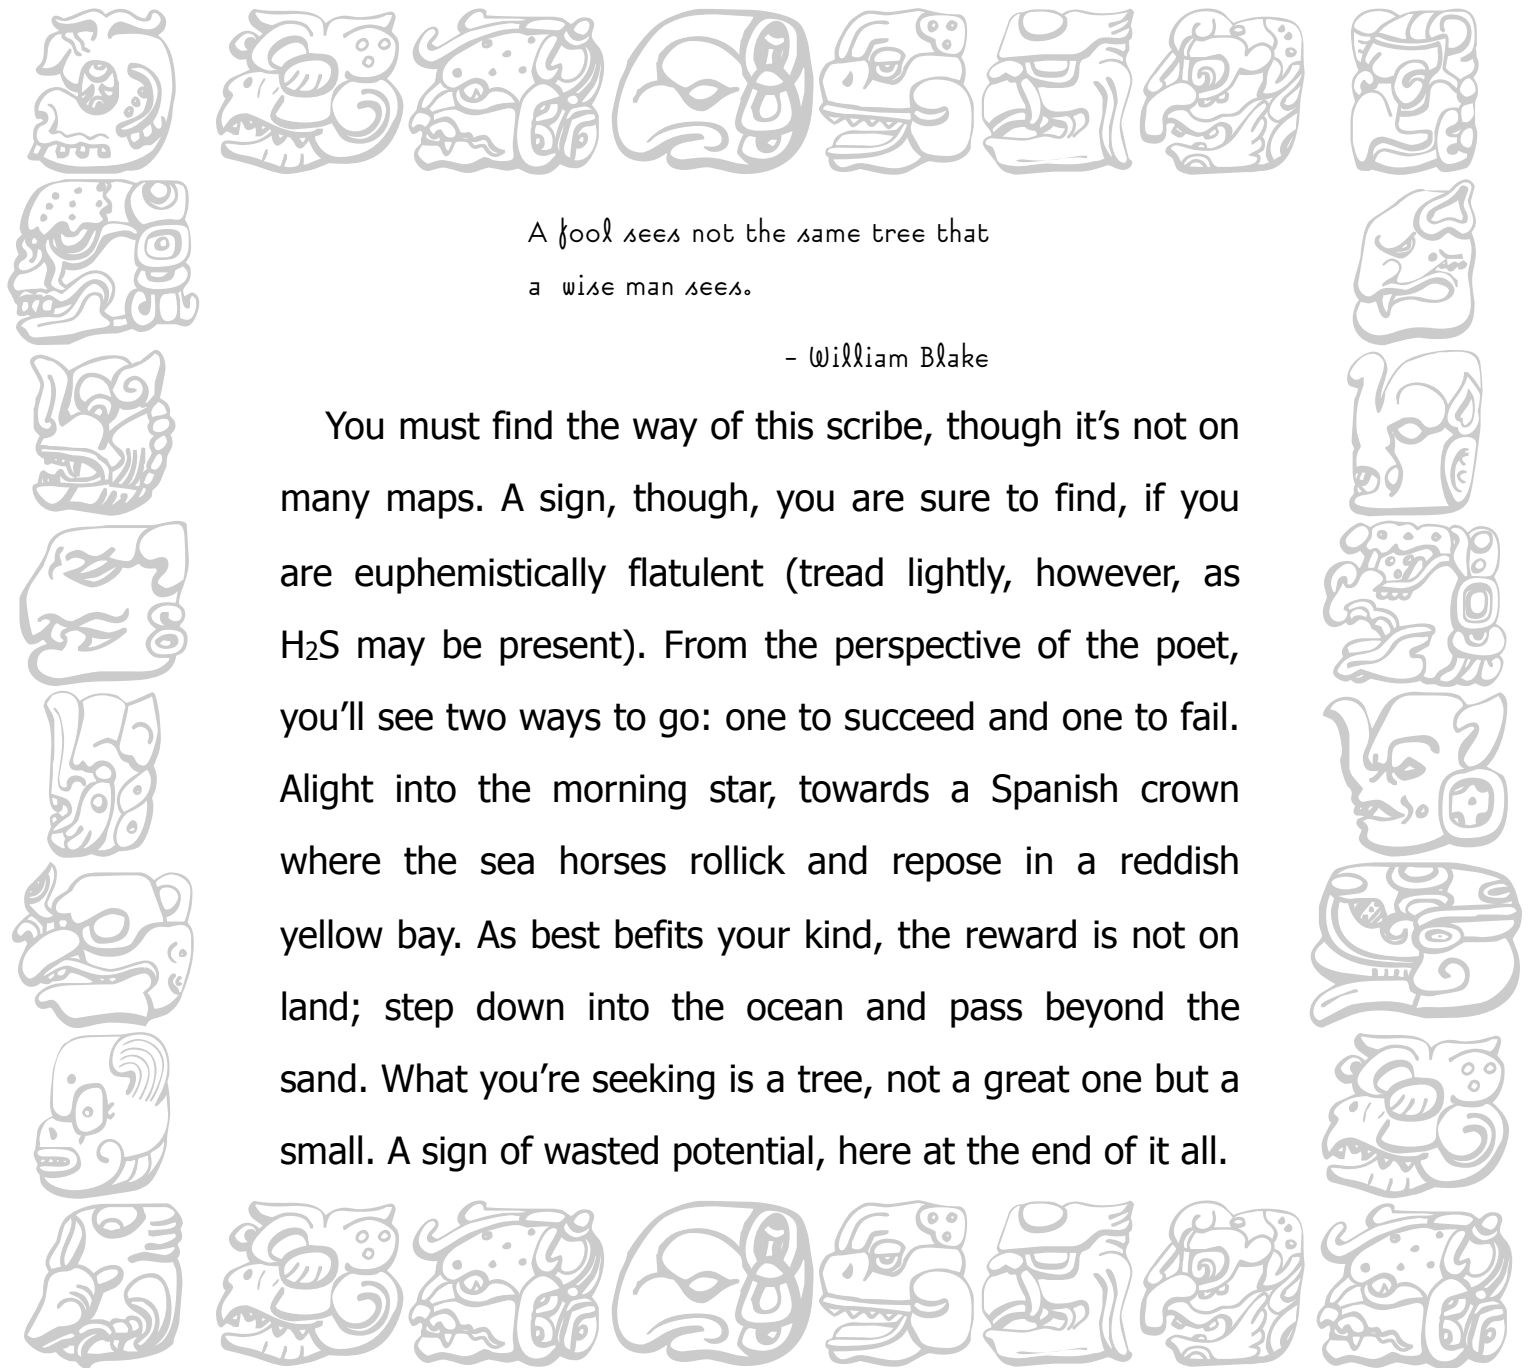

From the tranquility of your spot in the shade, you might be tempted to explore the further reaches such as Mandalily and Satsang, but instead set about climbing for a better view. Be good, act nice, and have fun, then you will be at your destination in no time. Atop the shade you'll find a commanding view, watched over by four silent guards. Look carefully, adjust your perspective, and you'll find your reward in no time.

B'EN

REMEMBRANCE OF THE EARTH

B'en, represents the Reed or Corn. It is the nawal of the home and children; on this day we give thanks for our home, our family and for the nourishment we are provided by the planet. Ben's animal totems are the armadillo and the bee.

A fool sees not the same tree that a wise man sees.

- William Blake

You must find the way of this scribe, though it's not on many maps. A sign, though, you are sure to find, if you are euphemistically flatulent (tread lightly, however, as H₂S may be present). From the perspective of the poet, you'll see two ways to go: one to succeed and one to fail. Alight into the morning star, towards a Spanish crown where the sea horses rollick and repose in a reddish yellow bay. As best befits your kind, the reward is not on land; step down into the ocean and pass beyond the sand. What you're seeking is a tree, not a great one but a small. A sign of wasted potential, here at the end of it all.

CHICKCHAN'

TEST OF EDUCATION

Chickchan', is the Feathered Serpent. This daysign is also the nawal of the creation of humans and of education and training. Chickchan' has a strong connection to koyopa, the inner fire also known as kundalini, and thus provides a positive energy to build both physical and spiritual strength. Its animal totem is the serpent.

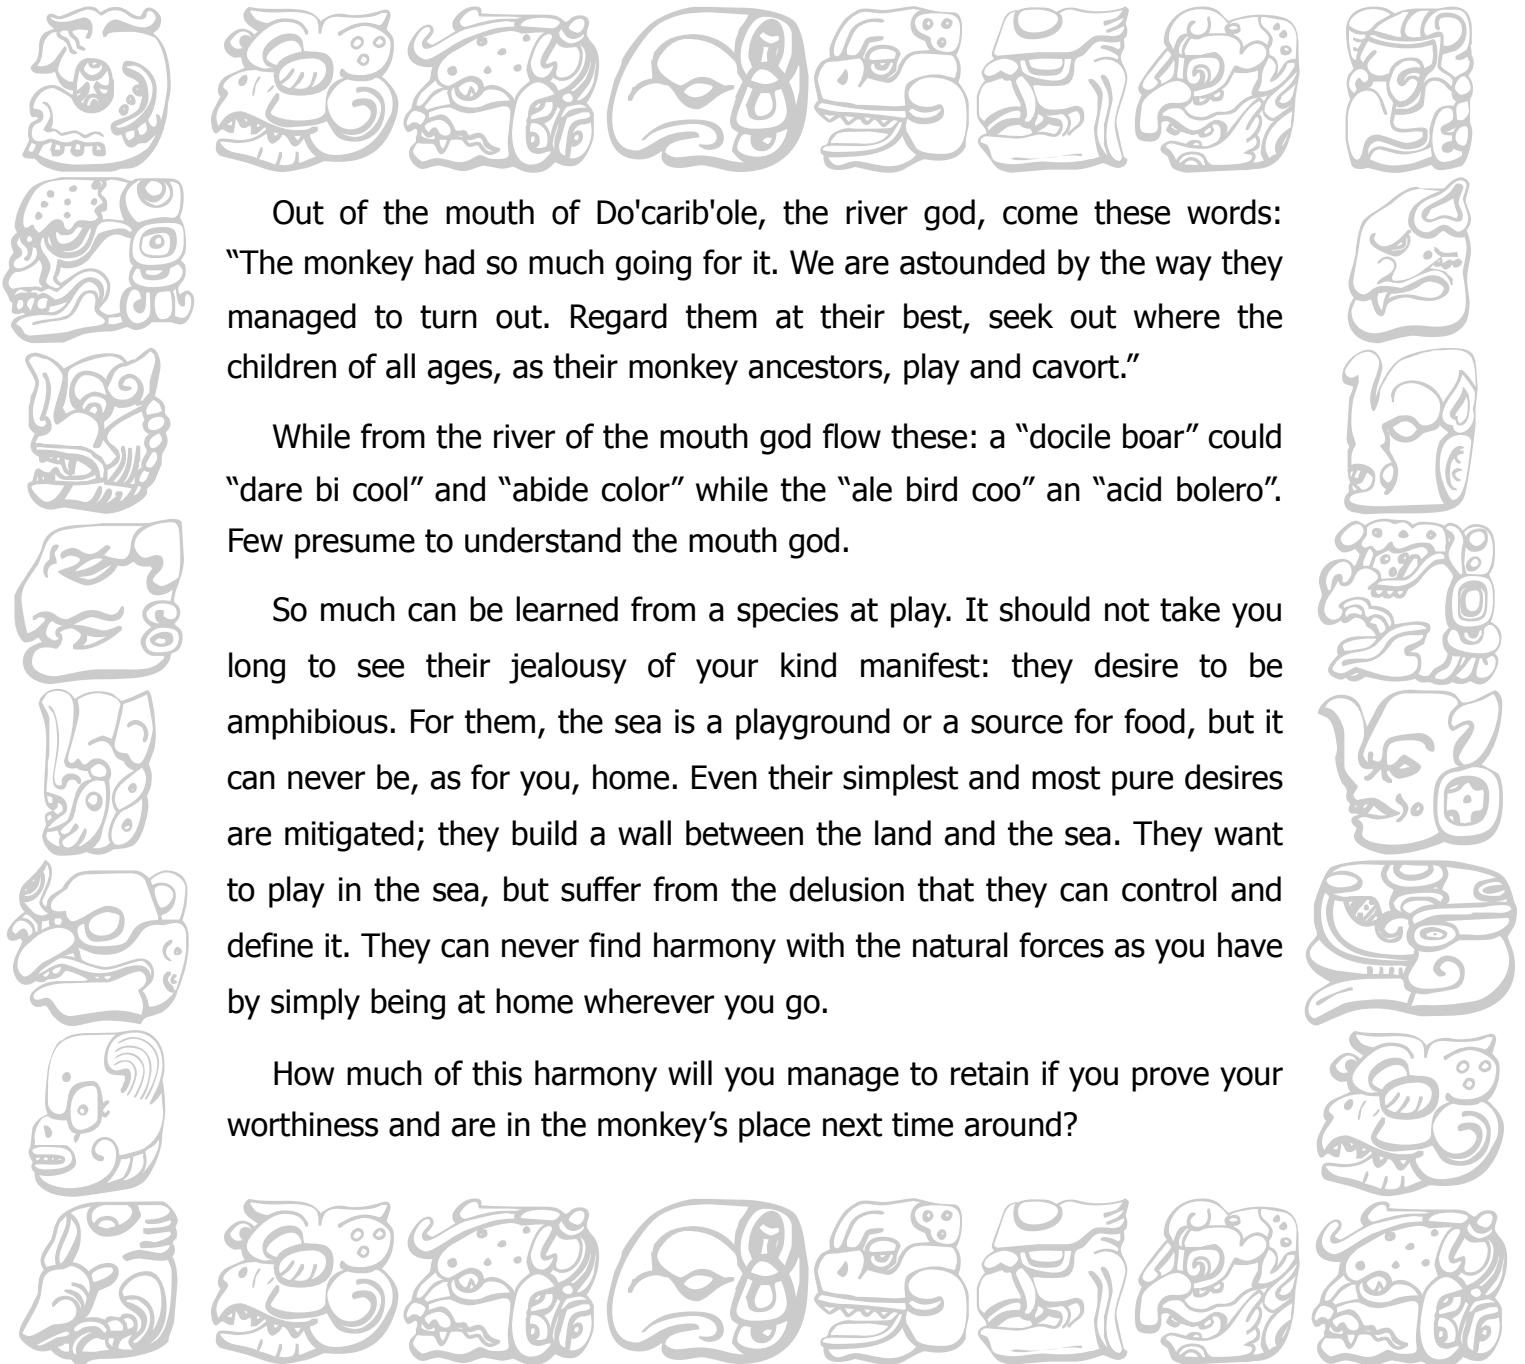

Meander towards your likeness, Turtle, along the beach, near a school above all others. Turn around and nearby you'll find some mangroves at work, keeping the beach keeping the view. Look behind them to learn what they have to teach you and claim your reward.

CHUWEN

MEASURE OF INSOURCIANCE

Chuwen, is the daysign of the Monkey. This is the nawal of all arts and the artists—and as such, Chuwen is the patron daysign of all creative expression, endeavor and achievement. It is often referred to as the "weaver of time," and is considered to be the best day to be married.

Out of the mouth of Do'carib'ole, the river god, come these words: "The monkey had so much going for it. We are astounded by the way they managed to turn out. Regard them at their best, seek out where the children of all ages, as their monkey ancestors, play and cavort."

While from the river of the mouth god flow these: a "docile boar" could "dare bi cool" and "abide color" while the "ale bird coo" an "acid bolero". Few presume to understand the mouth god.

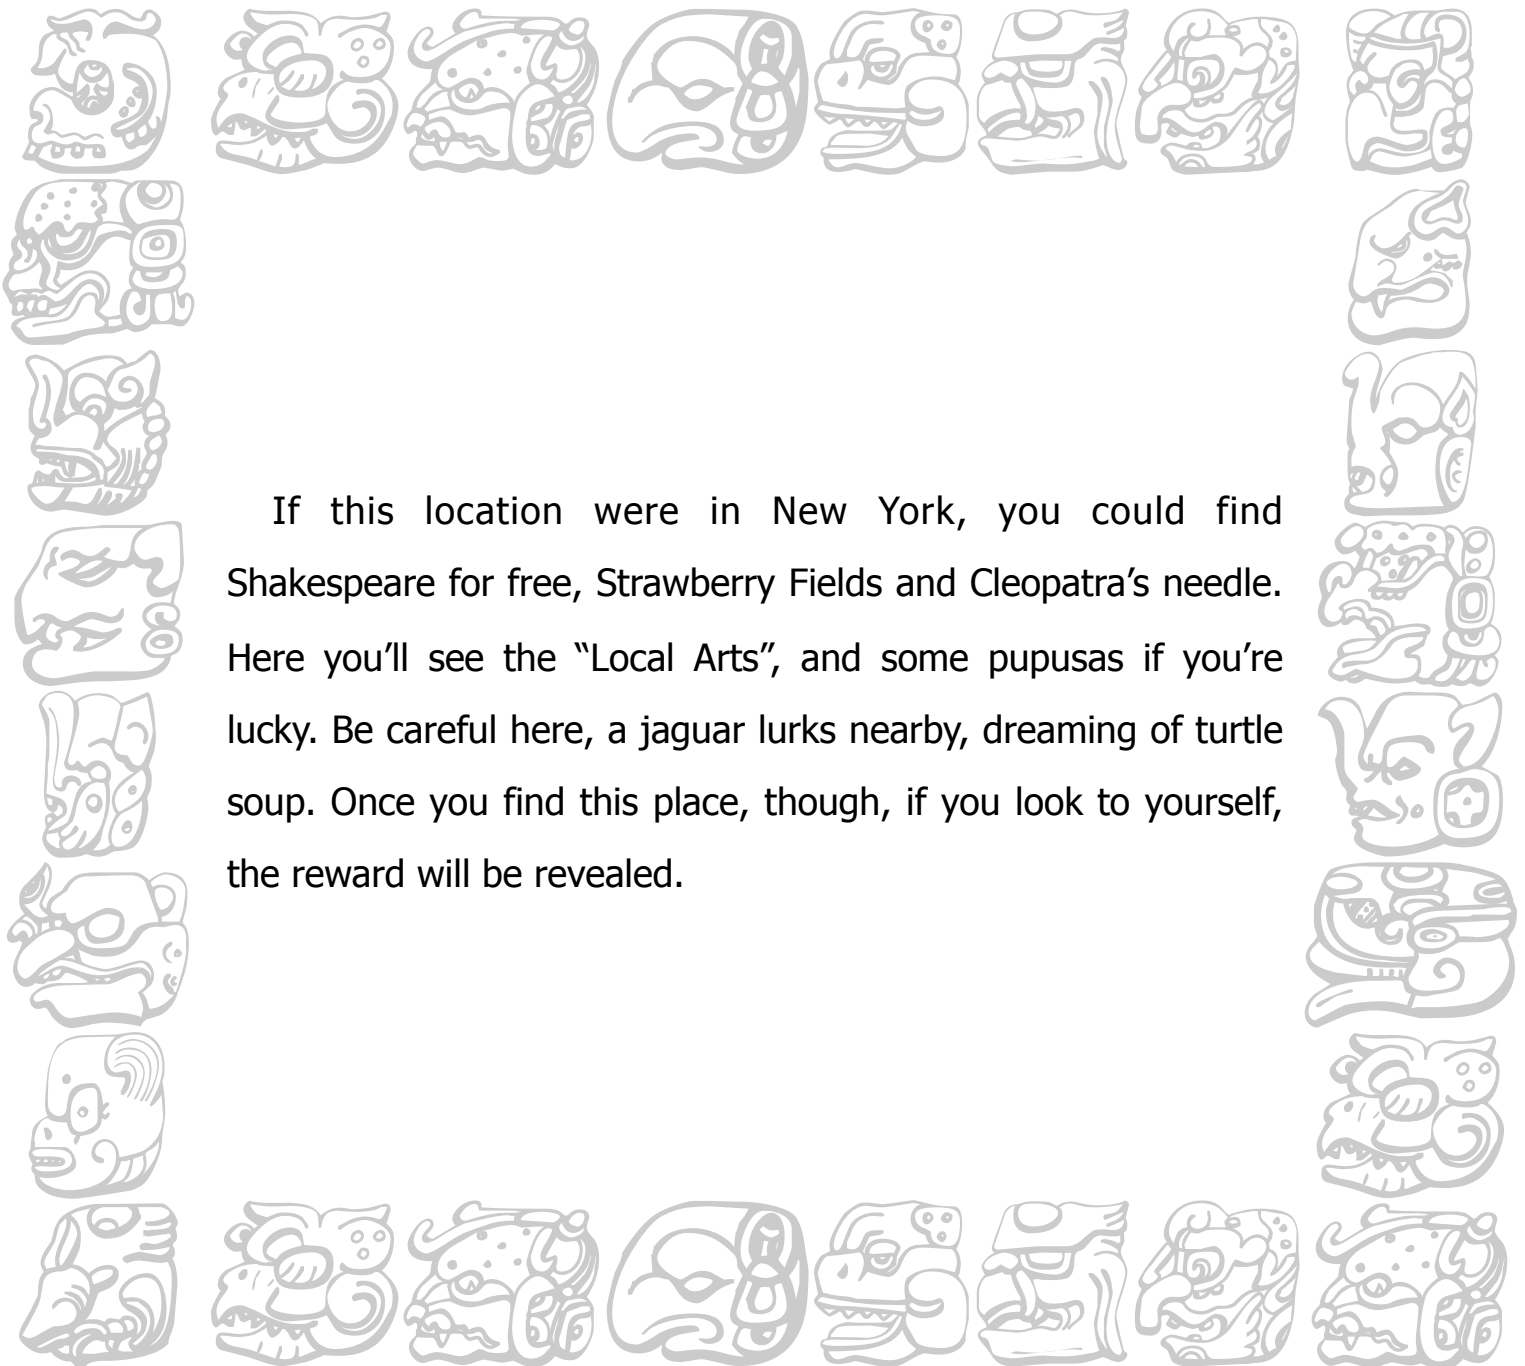

So much can be learned from a species at play. It should not take you long to see their jealousy of your kind manifest: they desire to be amphibious. For them, the sea is a playground or a source for food, but it can never be, as for you, home. Even their simplest and most pure desires are mitigated; they build a wall between the land and the sea. They want to play in the sea, but suffer from the delusion that they can control and define it. They can never find harmony with the natural forces as you have by simply being at home wherever you go.

How much of this harmony will you manage to retain if you prove your worthiness and are in the monkey's place next time around?

TEST OF VITALITY

Ix, represents the powerful Jaguar. One of the most enigmatic daysigns in the Tzolk'in, Ix is the nawal of nature and Mayan altars. It embodies spirit, force, energy and vitality, and it is recommended to give thanks for special sacred places we create in our lives, on this day. Ix's animal totem is the jaguar.

If this location were in New York, you could find Shakespeare for free, Strawberry Fields and Cleopatra's needle. Here you'll see the "Local Arts", and some pupusas if you're lucky. Be careful here, a jaguar lurks nearby, dreaming of turtle soup. Once you find this place, though, if you look to yourself, the reward will be revealed.
